Using the Software.

Using the software is very easy. To get started, click a tab..

Each tab has option. For example, the “Niche Research” tab has the following options from where you can select a content angle to get keywords using the selected angle of your choice.

Then, if you expand the “Example of Keywords You can Research” option, you can see some keywords that you can use.

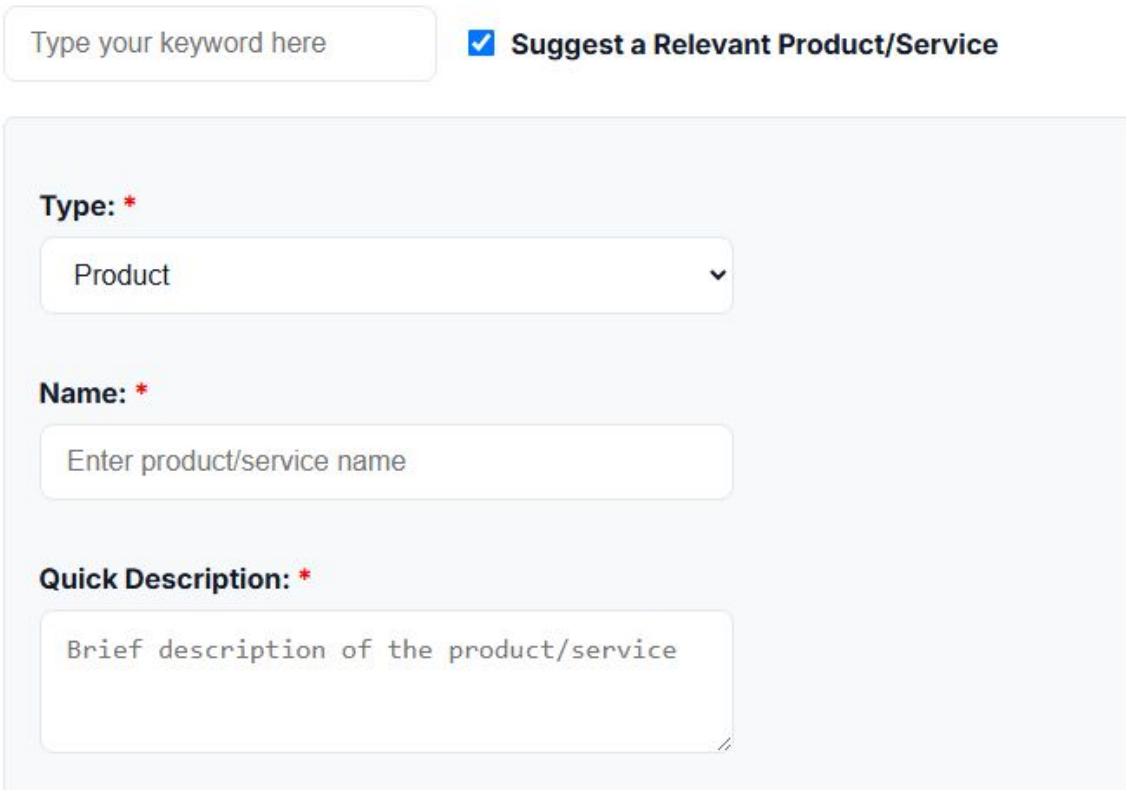

After this, enter the keywords of your choice in the “Type your keyword here” textbox and click “Generate Keywords”.

This will generate a prompt that you can use inside ChatGPT or other tools.

Once that you have a keyword of your choice, you can use the “Article Creator” to generate an article (using different angles), for that keyword.

Comment: This option allows you to promote a product (affiliate etc), insider your content..

Once you have chosen a keyword, you can use the “Article Creator” to generate articles from different angles for that keyword.

The “Mail Creator” module helps you create emails that can be used to set up autoresponder sequences or broadcast campaigns.

The “Answers Creator” module helps you generate answers for “question marketing” platforms such as Quora, Reddit, and others.

The “Video Creator” module allows you to create videos in minutes using veed.io or other tools.

That’s All!
